Dear Fred,

Re: 2015 CASW Distinguished Service Award (Manitoba)

It is with great pleasure that the Manitoba Institute of Registered Social Workers nominates “All past and present MASW and MIRSW board, committee and other members who have supported social work regulation in the province”, for the 2015 CASW Distinguished Service award for Manitoba.

This nomination was received from Manitoba College of Social Workers Interim Transitional Board board member Jan Christianson-Wood. The nomination was supported by former MIRSW board members Eveline Milliken, Florette Giasson and Laura Crookshanks.

Ms. Crookshanks’ letter of support includes the following: “I am writing to support the nomination put forward by Jan Christianson-Wood. There are many social workers who worked very diligently over the last 40 years to bring about regulation and I feel it would be fitting to honour them”.

The 2015 CASW Distinguished Service Award for Manitoba will be awarded during Social Work Week on March 25th, 2015 at a reception in Winnipeg to celebrate their achievements and open the Manitoba College of Social Workers.

Sincerely,

Miriam Browne
Executive Director/Registrar
