

Academic in Counsellor Education | Faculty of Education and Social Work

Waipapa Taumata Rau | The University of Auckland

The Faculty of Education and Social Work/Te Kura Akoranga me te Tauwhiro Tangata is committed to promoting Māori presence and participation in all aspects of university life including maintaining and strengthening our core of excellent Māori staff members. We are committed to the development and implementation of policies and processes to improve Māori staff recruitment, promotion, reward, and retention.

The faculty welcomes applications from individuals with a teaching, research and academic leadership background that has been informed by knowledge of indigenous education and/or practice (either in New Zealand or overseas), in order to grow our collective understanding, enhance the diversity of our staff and strengthen our links with diverse communities.

We offer the opportunity for staff to deepen their understanding of Te Tiriti and te reo on our marae, Te Aka Matua o Te Pou Hawaiki, and through our flagship Te Akoranga Kaiarangi staff development programme. We provide an environment that supports Māori and Pacific learners with specialised support at Te Korowai Atawhai and Pasifika Success.
