

HOW TO IMPROVE CHILD WELFARE IN CANADA according to social workers

- 1 Address the disproportionality of Indigenous families and other visible minorities such as Black Canadian families involved with the child welfare system
 - 2 Improve working conditions for social workers by addressing workload
 - 3 Support organizations to improve staff retention and reduce turnover
 - 4 Support organizations to develop strategies to promote mental health and wellness and address post-traumatic stress experienced by social workers
 - 5 Raise the value organizations place on social work knowledge and methods and the importance that social workers have adequate time to spend with clients
-

This information comes from a national research project undertaken by the

CANADIAN ASSOCIATION of SOCIAL WORKERS (CASW)

Read the full report at casw-acts.ca